G.O.Ms.No.356, Dated 14th February 1949
Read the following:-

Government Memorandum No.34788-C/48-1 Revenue, dated the 2nd July 1948
From the Board of Revenue, B.P.Rt.No.5004, dated the 28th July 1948.

O R D E R:

The Retrenchment and Re-organisation Committee made the following recommendations in regard to the conduct of Jamabandi:--

(1) that a time-limit should be fixed for the duratic of the Jamabandi in each district, with reference to the wor to be done; and

(2) that Jamabandi should in no case be conducted in any place other than the taluk or sub-taluk headquarters.

2. Under the existing provision in para 3 of B.S.O.12, it is not necessary that the Jamabandi of a whole taluk should be completed in one ~~xx~~ sitting extending over many days and it may, preferably, be conducted in two periods of about 7 or 10 days with an interval of 7 or 10 days. With reference to the recommendation of the Re-organisation and Retrenchment Committee, the Government direct that the Jamabandi should invariably be completed in one sitting, that ~~x~~ a time limit of about 10 days should be prescribed for the actual check by the Jamabandi Officer and that a period of about a week should be allowed in addition for the Jamabandi staff to get the accounts ready for scrutiny by the Jamabandi Officer. The Board of Revenue is requested to issue the necessary instructions to the Collectors fixing the actual time limits for each taluk with reference to the work to be done. The Board is also requested to take steps to amend the existing instructions in the B.S.O. suitably.

3. As regards the place for conducting the Jamabandi, para 3 of B.S.O.12 lays down that the Jamabandi should ordinarily be conducted at the taluk-headquarters and where there are sub-taluks in charge of ~~xxx~~ Dependent Deputy Tahsildars, the Jamabandi of sub-taluks should be conducted at the headquarters of the sub-taluks themselves. The permission of the Board of Revenue has to be obtained, whenever, in exceptional cases, the Jamabandi of a taluk or sub-taluk has to be conducted at a place other than its headquarters. In practice, however, the conduct of the Jamabandi out of taluk or sub-taluk headquarters is extremely rare. The Government therefore do not consider it necessary to lay down any such rule as proposed by the Retrenchment and Re-organization Committee.
